

Reginald Bähris

Reginald Bähris is an American stand-up comedian based in Austria, and has quickly made a name for himself on the international circuit as one of the fastest rising up-and-comers in continental Europe. He has been the opening act for comedy legend Russell Peters, performed at several major international festivals, and headlined 60+ cities in 22 countries across Europe!

Since founding "Comedy for Expats" in 2016, Reginald has continually spearheaded Vienna's English comedy scene. In 2017 he abandoned his master studies to pursue comedy full-time, becoming the first college drop out in Austrian history to get an Artist Visa for English stand-up comedy.

For the next several years Reginald self-produced international comedy tours to sold-out shows across Europe. After huge amounts of underground success, he has made it his mission to continue bringing Europe's English comedy scene out of the shadows. And with his 2023 debut at Kabarett Niedermair, he continues to bridge the gap between the international scene and the traditional entertainment industry.
